Re: Plea Agreement with ALBERT POET

Dear Mr. Hughes:

This letter sets forth the plea agreement between your client, ALBERT POET, and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey ("this Office").

Charge

Conditioned on the understandings specified below, this Office will accept a guilty plea from ALBERT POET to a one-count information, which charges introduction, with intent to defraud, into interstate commerce of a drug that is misbranded, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 331(a), 352(i)(3), and 333(a)(2). If ALBERT POET enters a guilty plea and is sentenced on this charge, and otherwise fully complies with all of the terms of this agreement, this Office will not initiate any further criminal charges against ALBERT POET for his procurement and use of an unapproved form of Botulinum Toxin Type A on patients of his medical practice in the District of New Jersey between in or about December 2003 and in or about December 2004. However, in the event that the judgment of conviction entered as a result of this guilty plea does not remain in full force and effect, any dismissed charges and any other charges that are not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations on the date this agreement is signed by ALBERT POET may be commenced against him, notwithstanding the expiration of the limitations period after ALBERT POET signs the agreement. ALBERT POET agrees to waive any statute of limitations with respect to any crime that would otherwise expire after ALBERT POET signs the agreement.

Sentencing

The violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 331(a), 352(i)(3), and 333(a)(2) to which ALBERT POET agrees to plead guilty carries a statutory maximum prison sentence of 3 years and a statutory maximum fine equal to the greatest of: (1) $250,000; (2) twice the gross amount of any pecuniary gain that any persons derived from the offense; or (3) twice the gross amount of any pecuniary loss sustained by any victims of the offense. Fines imposed by the sentencing judge may be subject to the payment of interest.

The sentence to be imposed upon ALBERT POET is within the sole discretion of the sentencing judge, subject to the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3551-3742, and the sentencing judge's consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The United States Sentencing Guidelines are advisory, not mandatory. The sentencing judge may impose any reasonable sentence up to and including the statutory maximum term of imprisonment and the maximum statutory fine. This Office cannot and does not make any representation or promise as to what guideline range may be found by the sentencing judge, or as to what sentence ALBERT POET ultimately will receive.

Further, in addition to imposing any other penalty on ALBERT POET, the sentencing judge: (1) will order ALBERT POET to pay an assessment of $100 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013, which assessment must be paid by the date of sentencing; (2) must order ALBERT POET to pay restitution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 et seq.; (3) may order ALBERT POET, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3555, to give notice to any victims of his offense; and (4) pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583, may require ALBERT POET to serve a term of supervised release of not more than 1 year, which will begin at the expiration of any term of imprisonment imposed. Should ALBERT POET be placed on a term of supervised release and subsequently violate any of the conditions of supervised release before the expiration of its term, ALBERT POET may be sentenced to not more than 1 year imprisonment in addition to any prison term previously imposed, regardless of the statutory maximum term of imprisonment set forth above and without credit for time previously served on post-release supervision, and may be sentenced to an additional term of supervised release.

Rights of this Office Regarding Sentencing

Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, this Office reserves its right to take any position with respect to the appropriate sentence to be imposed on ALBERT POET by the sentencing judge, to correct any misstatements relating to the sentencing proceedings, and to provide the sentencing judge and the United States Probation Office all law and information relevant to sentencing, favorable or otherwise. In addition, this Office may inform the sentencing judge and the United States Probation Office of: (1) this agreement; and (2) the full nature and extent of ALBERT POET's activities and relevant conduct with respect to this case.

Rights of this Office Regarding Post-Sentencing Proceedings

This Office specifically reserves the right to file, oppose, or take any position in any appeal, collateral attack, or proceeding involving post-sentencing motions or writs.

Other Provisions

This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and cannot bind other federal, state, or local authorities. However, this Office will bring this agreement to the attention of other prosecuting offices, if requested to do so.

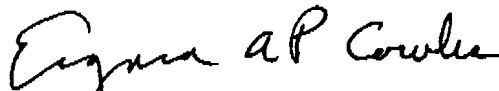

This agreement was reached without regard to any civil or administrative matters that may be pending or commenced in the future against ALBERT POET. This agreement does not prohibit the United States, any agency thereof (including the Internal Revenue Service), or any third party from initiating or prosecuting any civil proceeding against ALBERT POET.

No Other Promises

This agreement constitutes the plea agreement between ALBERT POET and this Office and supersedes any previous agreements between them. No additional promises, agreements, or conditions have been made or will be made unless set forth in writing and signed by the parties.

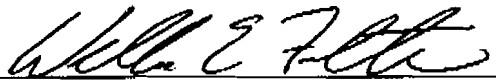

Very truly yours,

CHRISTOPHER J. CHRISTIE
United States Attorney
